In narrative form please tell why this person should be inducted into the Benton County high school athletics Hall of Fame. Feel free to add additional sheets if necessary.

Mr. Hawley was a quarterback for the high school team in 1927 – 1928. He supported the football program until his death in 1996. He attended most games at home and away up until the year before his death and was active in all activities supporting the program. For years he combed the IGA parking lot picking up receipts used to raise funds for the football program.
