Sport/s Played Baseball, Basketball, track & Football
Nominated by DAN L. BOYD Phone 618-559-9078
Date of nomination 2-3-2014

In narrative form please tell why this person should be inducted into the Benton County high school athletics Hall of Fame. Feel free to add additional sheets if necessary.

David Markham lettered in four sports, football, basketball, baseball and track. He was an outstanding basketball player averaging 20 pts per game senior year. He was a running back and QB in football, and played short stop and pitched for Baseball team. He was captain of both football and Basketball team his senior year.

David is without a doubt the resident historian for CCHS Sports. He lives & breaths it in every conversation I have with. He is also of pristine character.
