In narrative form please tell why this person should be inducted into the Benton County High School Athletics Hall of Fame. Feel free to add additional sheets if necessary.

Jack played football four years and basketball one year while attending Camden Central High School. These are the reasons I feel Jack Hensley should be inducted into the Benton County High School Athletics Hall of Fame. Jack wanted to play football so much that sometimes he had to walk to Beaver Dam where his family lived after practice or a game. Sometimes he got rides, sometimes he didn't. He was also chosen Most Athletic his senior year.
