In narrative form please tell why this person should be inducted into the Benton County High School Athletics Hall of Fame. Feel free to add additional sheets if necessary.

Jack played football four years and basketball one year while attending Camden Central High School. These are the reasons I feel Jack Hensley should be inducted into the Benton County High School Athletics Hall of Fame. Jack wanted to play football so much that sometimes he had to walk to Beaver Dam where his family lived after practice or a game. Sometimes he got rides, sometimes he didn't. He was also chosen Most Athletic his senior year.

His one regret in life was that he wasn't able to utilize his football scholarship. He chose to move to Detroit and get a job in order to send money home to help support his family. He had eleven siblings.

Jack loved playing sports of all kinds, especially football. After high school he loved going to hometown games and professional games. He also watched them on television. He played softball for many years in his adult life.

Jack's son William Jack (Bill) Hensley moved from Detroit to Camden to be with his dad and play football. He played for four years. Jack didn't miss a game. His nephew Jeff Rowland also played football for four years. Jack went to all of his games, too.

In memory of his dad, William J. Hensley and his wife Connie offer a scholarship award each year to a deserving student who has a high GPA and is signed up to play a sport in college.

Thank you,

Wanda Hensley
