In narrative form please tell why this person should be inducted into the Benton County high school athletics Hall of Fame. Feel free to add additional sheets if necessary.

(1961-62) Janis transferred to Big Sandy School Her Senior year. Although she only played one year at B.S. she left a legacy for girls Basketball in this small community. She was a team player always watching for an open man on the court. Not only could she handle the ball, she had an excellent eye for the basket. She was never concerned about how many points she made, only that they won the game. Once she asked her coach (Fred Garlin) what her point average was. He only replied years plus the other two players. You have to remember this was in a time when they played half court three on three.

It was also a long before the 3 point shot was introduced. You will never find a person who worked harder preparing herself than Janis. She went on after high school graduating from Belmont College and acquiring her Masters degree from Middle Tennessee state University. She came back to Benton County and spent the next 25 years coaching girls High School basketball at both Camden Central and Big Sandy High School.

She is still well known across the County as a Respected Player, Coach, and Professional Educator. I believe Janis holds a place in the hearts of many Benton Countians, and should be considered as an Inductee into The Benton County High School Athletics Hall of Fame.
