In narrative form please tell why this person should be inducted into the Benton County High School Athletics Hall of Fame. Feel free to add additional sheets if necessary.

Joel Van Cain played basketball for Holladay High School in 1940-41. He was 6' 4 1/2" tall and led his team to a winning season in 1941.

There are no records in existence to back my claim, just my memory. I will soon be 89 years old. I remember him leading his team to victory. He could out-jump everyone on his team.
