Sue Madrey loves the game of basketball. I remember when Sue was in about the 5th grade she would practice for hours in her backyard. The basketball goal was nailed to an old tree and needless to say Mr. & Mrs. Johnson never had to mow any grass under that tree. Sue's continual practice and motivation paid off, and when she went out for the Basketball Team in the 7th grade she was selected to play guard. The next year when she was in the 8th grade Sue was recognized for "Most Improved Player" on the team.

After two (2) years of Camden Jr High School she went on to play four (4) more years for Camden Central High School. As a freshman player, stealing the ball and scrambling on the hardwood was a must. During her junior year she concentrated on practicing her shots and playing forward.

During Sue's senior year (1960 - 61) she was voted Captain of the Team. Mr. Wayne Chester was the Coach. Sue was continuously a high scorer for the Lions. Her highest game was 29 points. During her senior year Sue received an award for "Most Free Throws" and thereafter was recognized as the girl with the "Most Field Goals."

Sue was voted "Most Athletic Girl" in Senior "Who's Who." Sue was always a team player supporting other team members both offensively and defensively. She was a competitive basketball player who practiced good sportsmanship.

I think Sue Madrey should be inducted into the Benton County High School Athletics Hall of Fame. In addition to her athletic accomplishments mentioned in this narrative, she is a person to admire for her outstanding characteristics. She is a dependable, friendly, caring person who presents herself well. Sue is married to Ernie Madrey and they have one son, Kenny. The Madrey's make their home in Camden, Tennessee.
